Small Quilts & Minis-"Does Size Matter?"

An over view of exactly what makes a quilt a mini rather than a small quilt. Many, many, many samples with patterns. Two page handout on mini tips.

Texture in Quilting-Whether it be the quilting, dimensional botanicals, couching, ruching or other forms of fabric manipulation, texture draws the eye and adds an additional dimension to your quilting.

Quilting by Design-For those that wish to design and those that are curious about the process. Learn how to start with an idea and follow easily understood steps for layout, balance and composition.

Scenic Quilts-These often start with a photo, then what? Simple guidelines for deciding what to keep, what to delete, how to work if you "can't draw", how to simplify, arrange and gain depth.

Quilting by the Foot-Learn all about the various feet that assist and speed up your quilting, increase your accuracy and make quilting more fun and less challenging.

Classes: Literally dozens and I will happily design classes specifically for your venue and needs.

Introducing "A Year of Minis"

Twelve miniature quilts and the special techniques that make mini quilting fun and easy to accomplish. From modern to heirloom, the many quilting techniques and designs are sure to keep you interested.

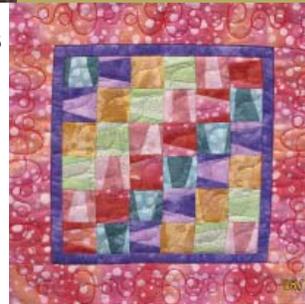

Jill enjoys designing quilts for specific venues and has designed for guilds and shops in a number of states including; Montana, Florida (3), California, Hawaii (3), Colorado, Nevada, Ohio and Massachusetts as well as Washington and Arizona (2). More quilts are added as she travels throughout the country. The quilts then become patterns in her collection.

Learning is a Joy

Jill created the "Dragonfly Moon" Wall Hanging as part of an exhibition at the La Connor Quilt Museum in Washington state. It was later included in her teaching schedule and became her very first commercial quilt pattern.

Customized Programs and Special Events including: Extensive Machine and Accessory foot knowledge, Embellishing, Student Confidence Building and Lots of Fun!

Teaching is a Pleasure

A Year of Minis is an entertaining, educational and original miniature quilt club brought to you by Jill McCloy. Sign up for the year and get Prep Pages with Club Format; Kit Making Ideas; Full color Demo Instructions; Recipes, Handouts and Discussion Questions

Crayons on My Quilt! is a class designed to teach the use of crayons, colored pencils and fabric pens on muslin.
